

Paul Hom Asian Clinic

Commitment to the Asian community

For the Asian and Pacific Islander community, the Paul Hom clinic provides primary and acute care services. Founded in 1972, it is the oldest Asian health clinic in the United States. More than 50 medical and undergraduate students and more than 40 physicians volunteer at this clinic on an annual basis.

Imani Clinic

Healing begins with faith

Imani is a Swahili word meaning faith and it symbolizes the hope students wish to foster within the African American community. The clinic was established in the Oak Park neighborhood of South Sacramento in 1994 after students became concerned about the staggering and persistent morbidity and mortality rates among African-Americans from hypertension, heart disease, cancer and inadequate prenatal care.

Saturdays: 8 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Shifa Clinic

Quality health care for the Muslim community

Shifa Clinic is located next door to a mosque not far from the State Capitol in Sacramento. It mainly serves patients from the Muslim community who face language and other cultural barriers to traditional medical care access. The clinic provides translation services in Urdu, Arabic, Farsi and Punjabi. Volunteers are dedicated to meeting not only patient medical needs, but also their religious and cultural practices.

Sundays: 8:30 a.m. – 2 p.m.

419 V Street, Suite A

Sacramento, CA 95818

(916) 441-6008

Joan Viteri Memorial Clinic

Health care for high-risk populations

Sharing space in a small building with Sacramento's Harm Reduction Services, the Joan Viteri clinic provides unbiased health care to intravenous drug users, sex workers and their families. Through street outreach, the clinic works closely with Harm Reduction Services to emphasize prevention and education about infectious diseases, HIV testing, and to provide drug-related medical and social referrals.

Saturdays: 1 p.m. – 5 p.m.

3647 40th Street

Sacramento, CA 95817

(916) 456-4849

Bayanihan Clinic

Focused on the needs of the Filipino community

This clinic provides culturally and linguistically appropriate medical care to the underserved Filipino population in Sacramento County, particularly to World War II veterans and recent immigrants. It also has evolved into a center for culturally sensitive care to an extraordinarily diverse community.

Saturdays: 9 a.m. – Noon

923 V Street

Sacramento CA, 95818

(916) 448-6553 or

(916) 833-1112

The Willow Clinic

Serving people without homes

Working out of the Salvation Army facility near downtown Sacramento, the clinic provides health-care screening and services to a large, homeless population. The clinic's dedication to the homeless prompted the Salvation Army to include Willow in its renovation plans, where it has set aside two separate rooms solely for patient care and clinical operations.

Saturdays:

8:30 a.m. – 1 p.m.

1200 North B Street

Sacramento, CA 95814
